Engagement Models

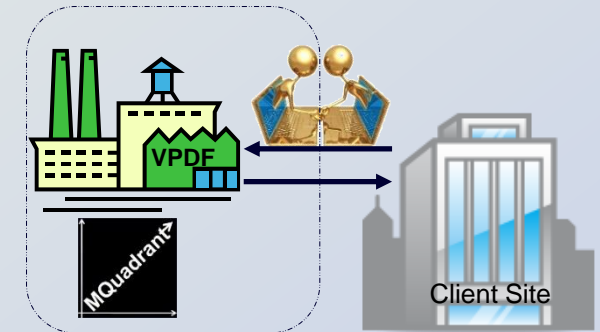

Traditional Consulting Model (Onsite)

MQuadrant consultant (Krupal Parchure) travels to the client site for project delivery

Virtual Project Delivery Factory (VPDF)

- Services, deliverables, and work products are delivered remotely via online technologies.
- Seamless delivery & collaboration is established via email, phone, video conferences, cloud, document management, etc.
- Significant cost savings on consulting fees and minimized transformational risks

Hybrid Model (Onsite + VPDF)

Clients can get the savings advantage from the VPDF model and still have the consultant onsite when necessary
